

Hannah Scaglia

Hannah completed a Post-Graduate Diploma in Dietetics at Otago University in 2009. She has worked in the areas of community, aged care, private practice and clinical nutrition. This has included time working as a dietitian in Australia and the United Kingdom.

Hannah now lives in Tauranga and has worked for the Bay of Plenty District Health Board for the last four years as a clinical dietitian for adult inpatients. She enjoys working in the areas of surgical, gastroenterology and critical care nutrition.

