

The Royal New Zealand
College of General Practitioners
Te Whare Tohu Rata o Aotearoa

NEW ZEALAND
RURAL
GENERAL PRACTICE NETWORK

Programme for Rural Research Day
Rural GP Network Conference 2019

Thursday 4th April 2019

Aim of the day:

An annual opportunity to present research pertinent to life in rural New Zealand. This years theme aims to explore the ethics of rural research and affirm that the goals of our research efforts are to serve our rural communities.

Programme

1000 - 1010

Welcome Mihi Whakatau

1010 - 1015

Introduction to the Rural Research Day
Dr Greville Wood, Rural Chapter, RNZCGP

1015 - 1030

Speaker TBC

1035 - 1105

Te Ara Tika
Mrs Moe Milne, Te Pou o te Whakaaro Nui

1110 - 1200

Rural Research in Canada and the elephant in the room "Colonialism"
Professor Carrie Bourassa, University of Saskatchewan, Canada

1200 - 1215

Morning wrap up
Speak TBC

1215 - 1245 Lunch

1245 - 1300

Point of care ultrasound assessment of intravascular volume in rural practice
Dr Garry Nixon, Head of section and Associate Dean Rural, University of Otago

1305 - 1320

Survey of Procedural Sedation Capacity in Rural Hospitals of New Zealand
- enhancing clinical service or risky practice?
Dr Sampsa Kiuru, Ashburton Rural Academic Unit

1325 - 1340

Town and Country - Quantifying hospital harm in rural and urban New Zealand
Dr Carol Atmore (by Zoom), Dept of General Practice and Rural Health, Uni of Otago

1345 - 1400

Using smart phones and smart data to promote well-being in a rural work force
Mr Trevor Best, University of Canterbury

1400 - 1415 Coffee and Discussion

1420 - 1435

Reflections from members of the agricultural community of preferred support for mental health

Dr Fiona Doolan-Noble, Senior research fellow, Rural health, University of Otago

1440 - 1455

Advancing your clinical practice and getting published

Dr Jean Ross, Associate Professor of Nursing, Otago Polytechnic

1500 - 1515

Equity and Sustainability of General Practitioner Services - patient and service provider perspectives

Mr Jesse Whitehead, University of Waikato

1520 - 1535

Patients with multi-morbidity - Failing systems and social inequality creates fragmented service

Anders Svensson, Norwegian centre of Rural Health, the Arctic University of Tromsø, Bø Kommune and Kaikoura Healthcare.

1540 - 1555

GP Obstetric Workforce in New Zealand

Dr Brendan Marshall, West Coast DHB

1555 - 1615 Coffee and Discussion

1615 - 1700

Developing the Capacity of Ethical Rural Researchers

Chair: TBC

Panel: Mrs Moe Milne, Dr Garry Nixon, Dr Sampsa Kiuru, Professor Ngaire Kerse, Dr Greville Wood

Panel discussion/Question and Answer Session

Questions from the floor on any delegate, topics likely to be covered:

- Basic teaching for aspirant researchers
- Advanced training for researchers
- Progress of Rural Research at Auckland and Otago Universities this year
- Advice regarding funding and how to apply
- How might we build a collaborative rural hospital research network