

“Keep Calm – its only hazardous substances”

New H&S regulations for hazardous substances came into effect December 2017.

What that means for general practice is not well understood. – so come along for an overview on what’s changed and what’s required for legislative compliance.