

Janine Rider

Janine is a Service Manager for Gonville Health Ltd which is a VLCA general practice established by Whanganui Regional Health Network (PHO) as a means to improve primary care access and equity for the Whanganui District. Janine is employed in a dual role at both Gonville Health and the Primary Health Organisation.

Janine started her career in the commercial sector but has been working in health administration and management for nearly 20 years. HQSC sponsored her to complete the Ko Awatea primary care improvement facilitator's certificate as part of the whakakotahi programme. She also holds a degree in management, majoring in strategy.
