

Jennifer Myers

MBA

Jennifer's mission in life is to positively impact as many people as possible, and she feels truly honoured to be able to live out this mission every day through her work as a Speaker, International Trainer and Business Coach. Over the past 26 years, Jennifer has directly impacted over 6,500 professionals and in recent years has coached or trained over 350 of them reach greater levels of success.

From earning her Master's Degree to managing $1Million dollar marketing budgets to becoming a Certified Leadership and DISC Behavioural Styles consultant to creating content for the training curriculum of a national company, Jennifer has a unique blend of business experience that makes her an asset to her clients. Originally from the U.S., she and her small family are now NZ citizens, and she likes to call herself an 'AmeriKiwi'.