

Kirsty Randall

Kirsty's role is Business Development Manager with Employsure. I educate business owners around Employment work place relations, contracts policies, processes and eliminating risk to their business along with Health and Safety requirements and compliance. I will share must haves, common mistakes and how to avoid them as well as talk about policies and why they are important in your business. I am very much looking forward to this opportunity.